6 SIGNATURES

Please read carefully before signing:

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means to you: when you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you.

By signing this application, I (we) warrant that all information set forth in this Membership and Account Signature Card is true and correct. The Primary Member named above hereby makes application for membership in BrightStar Credit Union ("Credit Union") and agrees to be bound by all terms and conditions of Credit Union membership as amended by Credit Union from time to time. I (we) authorize Credit Union and its agents to obtain and verify information related to me(us) and my(our) deposit, employment, income and credit history, including, without limitation, consumer reports from consumer reporting agencies, at any time hereafter as determined by Credit Union in Credit Union's sole discretion. I (we) acknowledge receipt of and agree to be bound by the Credit Union Consumer Account Disclosures and all other agreements and disclosures provided to me(us) by Credit Union as amended by Credit Union from time to time in Credit Union's sole discretion. I request and agree Credit Union's Online Banking service and that Credit Union provide me all disclosures, agreements, contracts, periodic statements, receipts, modifications, amendments, and all other evidence of Credit Union's transactions with me or on my behalf electronically (hereinafter all such documentation is referred to as "electronic record(s)"). Credit Union may provide me any or all electronic records at any e-mail address provided by me to Credit Union or Credit Union may post any or all electronic records in Online Banking available at Credit Union's website www.bscu.org. If Credit Union posts electronic records on Online Banking, Credit Union will send a message to my e-mail address alerting me of the posting of such records. If Credit Union posts electronic records on Online Banking, the electronic records will remain available for at least ninety (90) days. Credit Union reserves the right to send any or all records to me in paper form to my current postal mailing address in Credit Union's file. I have a right to receive a paper copy of any of these electronic records only if applicable law specifically requires Credit Union to provide such documentation. I may withdraw my consent and revoke my agreement to receive records electronically. To request a paper copy or to withdraw my agreement to receive electronic records, I must go to Online Banking, sign on to the e-Statement application, then select "change registration," and then "discontinue accounts". Select the account(s) I wish to discontinue, and click "discontinue." To receive electronic records, I need a valid e-mail address, a computer with internet access and Adobe Acrobat Reader (which can be downloaded from the e-Statement registration screen in Online Banking). By requesting or viewing any electronic funds transfers, Internet Banking, other electronic records, services or transactions, by submitting any application or agreement to Credit Union electronically or by e-mailing Credit Union, I represent that I have such equipment and software and that I can download, access, read, review, print and store the electronic records Credit Union provides to me. I acknowledge and agree that the Internet is considered inherently insecure. Therefore, I agree that Credit Union has no liability to me whatsoever for any loss, claim or damages arising or in any way related to Credit Union's response(s) to any e-mail or other electronic communication which Credit Union in good faith believes I have submitted to Credit Union. Credit Union has no duty to investigate the validity or to verify any e-mail or other electronic communication. Credit Union may respond to an e-mail communication provided by me through Online Banking, the address provided with the communication or any other e-mail address provided by me to Credit Union. Any e-mail returned to Credit Union as undelivered may be re-sent to me at any other e-mail address that Credit Union has in my file. Although Credit Union has no obligation to do so, Credit Union reserves the right to require authentication of e-mails or electronic communications. The decision to require authentication is in the sole discretion of Credit Union. Credit Union has no obligation, liability or responsibility to me or any other person or company if Credit Union does not act upon or follow any instruction to Credit Union if a communication cannot be authenticated to Credit Union's satisfaction.
